

AN TÚDARÁS PÓILÍNEACHTA
POLICING AUTHORITY

Policing Authority makes appointments to senior civilian positions

The Policing Authority is pleased to announce that it has appointed Ms Kate Mulkerrins to the position of Executive Director – Legal & Compliance in the Garda Síochána.

This appointment was made in accordance with Section 19(2A) of the Garda Síochána Act 2005, following a selection process conducted by the Public Appointments Service on behalf of the Top Level Appointments Committee (TLAC).

The Authority also made a number of appointments to the position of Principal Officer in the Garda Síochána following an internal promotion competition, which was undertaken in accordance with the Commission for Public Service Appointments Code of Practice for Appointments to positions in the Civil and Public Service. The following candidates were appointed:

- Ms Monica Carr;
- Ms Fiona Delaney; and
- Mr Kieran Downey.

The Authority congratulates all involved and wishes them well in their future careers.

18/10/2017

ENDS

Note for Editors:

Kate Mulkerrins is a Barrister with 20 years post-qualification experience in the area of criminal law. Called to the Bar of England & Wales (Inner Temple) and Ireland, she holds a bachelor's degree in law (L.L.B.) and a first class master's degree in criminology.

She has held her current post as Senior Principal Prosecutor, heading up the Prosecution Policy & Research in the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions since the establishment of the unit in January of 2008. Prior to taking up this position Kate was legal advisor to 15 Rape Crisis Centres, throughout the island of Ireland (North & South) with the Rape Crisis Network Ireland. Simultaneous to this role she taught law (part-time) at NUIG. Kate commenced her legal career at the Bar of England & Wales.