

AN TÚDARÁS PÓILÍNEACHTA POLICING AUTHORITY

Policing Authority appoints an Assistant Commissioner in the Garda Síochána.

The Policing Authority is pleased to announce that it has appointed Chief Superintendent Orla McPartlin to the rank of Assistant Commissioner of the Garda Síochána. This is the fourth appointment to this rank made by the Authority since the commencement of its statutory appointment functions on 1 January 2017.

The appointment is made following a selection competition that involved a three-staged process, conducted in accordance with the statutory framework and the Authority's Statement of Practice.

The Authority also made a number of appointments to the rank of Superintendent in the Garda Síochána:

- Declan O'Sullivan, Anglesea Street Garda Station, Cork,
- Aidan Minnock – Athlone Garda District,
- Kevin Gately – Galway Garda District,
- Michael McElgunn – Garda Headquarters,
- Peter Mulryan – Garda National Bureau of Criminal Investigation and
- Carmel Banville – Waterford Garda Division.

The Authority congratulates all the officers involved and wishes them well in their future careers.

04/10/2017

ENDS

Notes for Editors

Biography of Assistant Commissioner Orla McPartlin

Assistant Commissioner Orla McPartlin joined An Garda Síochána in 1983. She has served at various ranks in the Dublin Metropolitan Region as well as the Western and Northern Regions.

She has also served in Liaison & Protection, Internal Affairs, Professional Standards Unit and the Commissioner's Office in Garda Headquarters. Currently she is the Divisional Officer in the Dublin Metropolitan Region Southern Division.

Assistant Commissioner McPartlin holds a B.A. in Public Management from the Institute of Public Administration and an M.A. in Criminal Justice from City University of New York. She is a member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Superintendent Selection Competition

These appointments to Superintendent are from a panel established resulting a selection competition for Superintendent which involved a two-staged process, conducted in accordance with the statutory framework and the Authority's Statement of Practice.